Bursarial Assistance

For families seeking bursarial support, the closing date for applications was 5th November of Year 7. An individual assessment would then have been conducted, followed by notification being sent relating to the amount of Bursarial Assistance might be expected on the candidate successfully completing the Scholarship Assessment.

Has Bursarial Support for this candidate been applied for? Yes Not Applicable

References

The current school Head and Scholarship Subject Teacher will be providing a reference and report. Parents are welcome to include any additional out-of-school references that may be relevant, (e.g. sports training bodies, drama schools, music tutors).

Parental Declaration

As a condition of a Marlborough Scholarship, a successful candidate is not permitted to enter a Scholarship for another school. The Marlborough Award is automatically withdrawn should this occur. The candidate is already holding a firm place at the College.

"It is our intention to accept a Scholarship at Marlborough, should my child be offered one."

Academic Scholarship

Contact the Admissions Department should you wish to receive past papers. The main Academic Scholarship examinations will take place at Marlborough College on Monday, 11th March, 2019. Prior to this, there is also an opportunity for candidates to sit Optional Papers at their current school on Tuesday, 5th March, 2019. (It is not detrimental to a candidate's application if Optional Papers are not taken).

Please indicate whether the candidate will sit any of the following Optional Papers:

French Spanish Latin Greek

Art Scholarship

If the candidate is applying for an Art Scholarship, a portfolio of work is to be brought on the day of assessment and should include the following:

No more than 5 mounted A1 sheets of work, or equivalent showing evidence of:

Drawing, in a range of media, from observation

An understanding of colour through painting and/or printmaking

The ability to develop ideas and themes

Evidence of the use of sketchbooks is desirable, though no more than two sketchbooks with at least 20 pages of work

Candidates who have produced 3-dimensional work, either in clay or other materials are encouraged to include this in their submission. Photographs of large and heavy work are entirely acceptable. Candidates who have taken and developed their own photographs should also include these. In addition, they are encouraged to include anything else that they find visually interesting.

Design Technology

If the candidate is applying for a Design Technology Scholarship, please ensure that a portfolio of work, comprising two sections, is submitted along with this application form containing the following:

Section 1 Documentation of one full design and make activity to include: The design brief, alongside an analysis of this challenge identifying key areas of information that need to be researched; evidence of research that has been undertaken; work that is graphic in nature showing how ideas have been developed; photographic evidence of any modelling that has taken place as part of the design process; photographic evidence of the final product and, possibly, its construction; evidence of product evaluation.

Section 2 A range of supplementary design sheets containing the equivalent of ten A3 sheets; candidates are advised to allocate a maximum of six sheets to the major project thus allowing four sheets for supporting activity. Three-dimensional work should be photographed. Candidates invited to an Assessment Day will, at that stage, be given the opportunity to bring their work to the College.

Music Scholarship

If the candidate is applying for a Music Scholarship, and has been invited to attend a Final Audition, please indicate the following:

William Morris All Rounder Scholarship

This Scholarship is given to strong candidates who have all round ability and are primarily, but not exclusively, given to those candidates who require some form of Bursarial Assistance. Candidates for this Scholarship must offer at least one of the following subjects to sit for during the Scholarship Assessments. Please indicate which:

Academic

Art

Design Tech.

Drama

Music

Sport

The requirements for application are the same as the individual Scholarships, e.g. a portfolio of work for Art and Design Technology.

Drama as part of William Morris All Rounder Scholarship

For those offering Drama as part of their William Morris All Rounder Scholarship application, please note the following will be required for the Assessment Day:

Perform a two minute monologue of their own choice from memory. The candidate should choose a monologue that they feel shows them in their best light. It is vital that the candidate feels secure with the material and has a full understanding of its context within the chosen play. Answers to the following should also be prepared:

Describe what the character looks like;

Where is your character at this point in the play?

Who is your character speaking to?

What does your character want?

Report and Reference in support of a Scholarship Application

Teacher's Report

A report is required from the candidate's current teacher of the Scholarship subject for which they are applying. Please arrange for the teacher to either supply the reference in a typed copy of their own format and attach it to this application form, or they can use the space provided below. As well as describing achievements in the subject area of application it would be helpful to include any other information or successes of note.

Head's Reference

Heads will have already provided a reference for pupils when they initially applied for a place at Marlborough. With respect to a Scholarship Application, we would be grateful if the Head could further state why the candidate should merit a Scholarship award. The reference can be received in a typed copy of own format choice and attached to this application form, otherwise please use the space provided below. Within the reference, please include information pertaining to a candidate's sense of responsibility, flair and independence of mind; their curiosity and resilience; what opportunities the candidate has had to show leadership qualities; whether the candidate shows particular talent in any area other than the Scholarship subject(s) they are applying for; whether there have been any significant disciplinary troubles and any other information or successes that would be useful to include.
